

Drawing for fun

Here are some pictures of children from Charles Dickens' stories, along with the things they use.

See if you can draw them in the boxes and then colour them in.

This is Pip.
He helps put horse shoes on horses' feet.
Can you draw a horse shoe like this one?

This is Estella.
She likes playing cards.
Can you draw some hearts like the ones on these cards?

This is Tiny Tim.
His family is very poor but he loves Christmas.
Can you draw a Christmas pudding like this one?

This is Oliver Twist.
He is hungry and doesn't have enough to eat. Can you draw a bowl of food like this one?

This is David Copperfield.
He is sent away to school.
Can you draw one of his school books like this one?

This is Nell.
She lives with her
grandfather in a shop.
The shop sells everything.
Can you draw a
teddy bear like this one?

This is Little Dorrit.
She likes sewing.
Can you draw some buttons like these?

This is the Artful Dodger.
His hat is called a top hat. Can you draw a top hat like the one he wears?

This is Martha Cratchit.
She is Tiny Tim's sister and she works in a shop that sells ladies' hats.
Can you draw a
pretty hat like this one?

Why not have a go at drawing your own Dickens character?

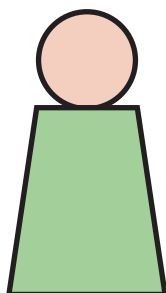

You can draw people using different shapes. Follow our easy steps below to see how.

Start by drawing a circle for the head.

2.

Add an oblong box for the body,

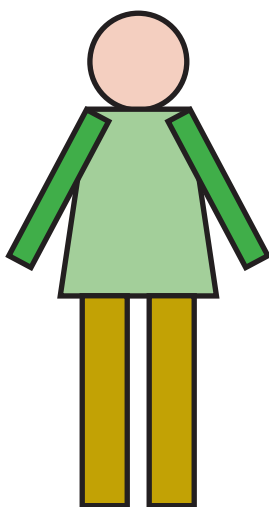

3.

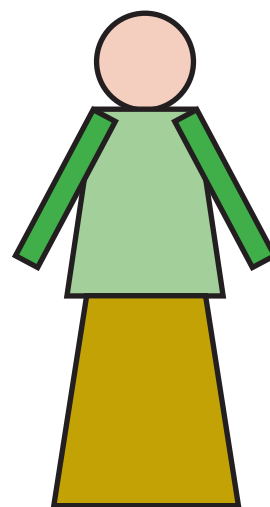

and two smaller oblongs for the arms.

4.

Now add trousers for a man, or a long skirt for a lady.

5.

Now it's time to draw the faces!

If you're drawing a man why not give him a hat, or maybe a beard?

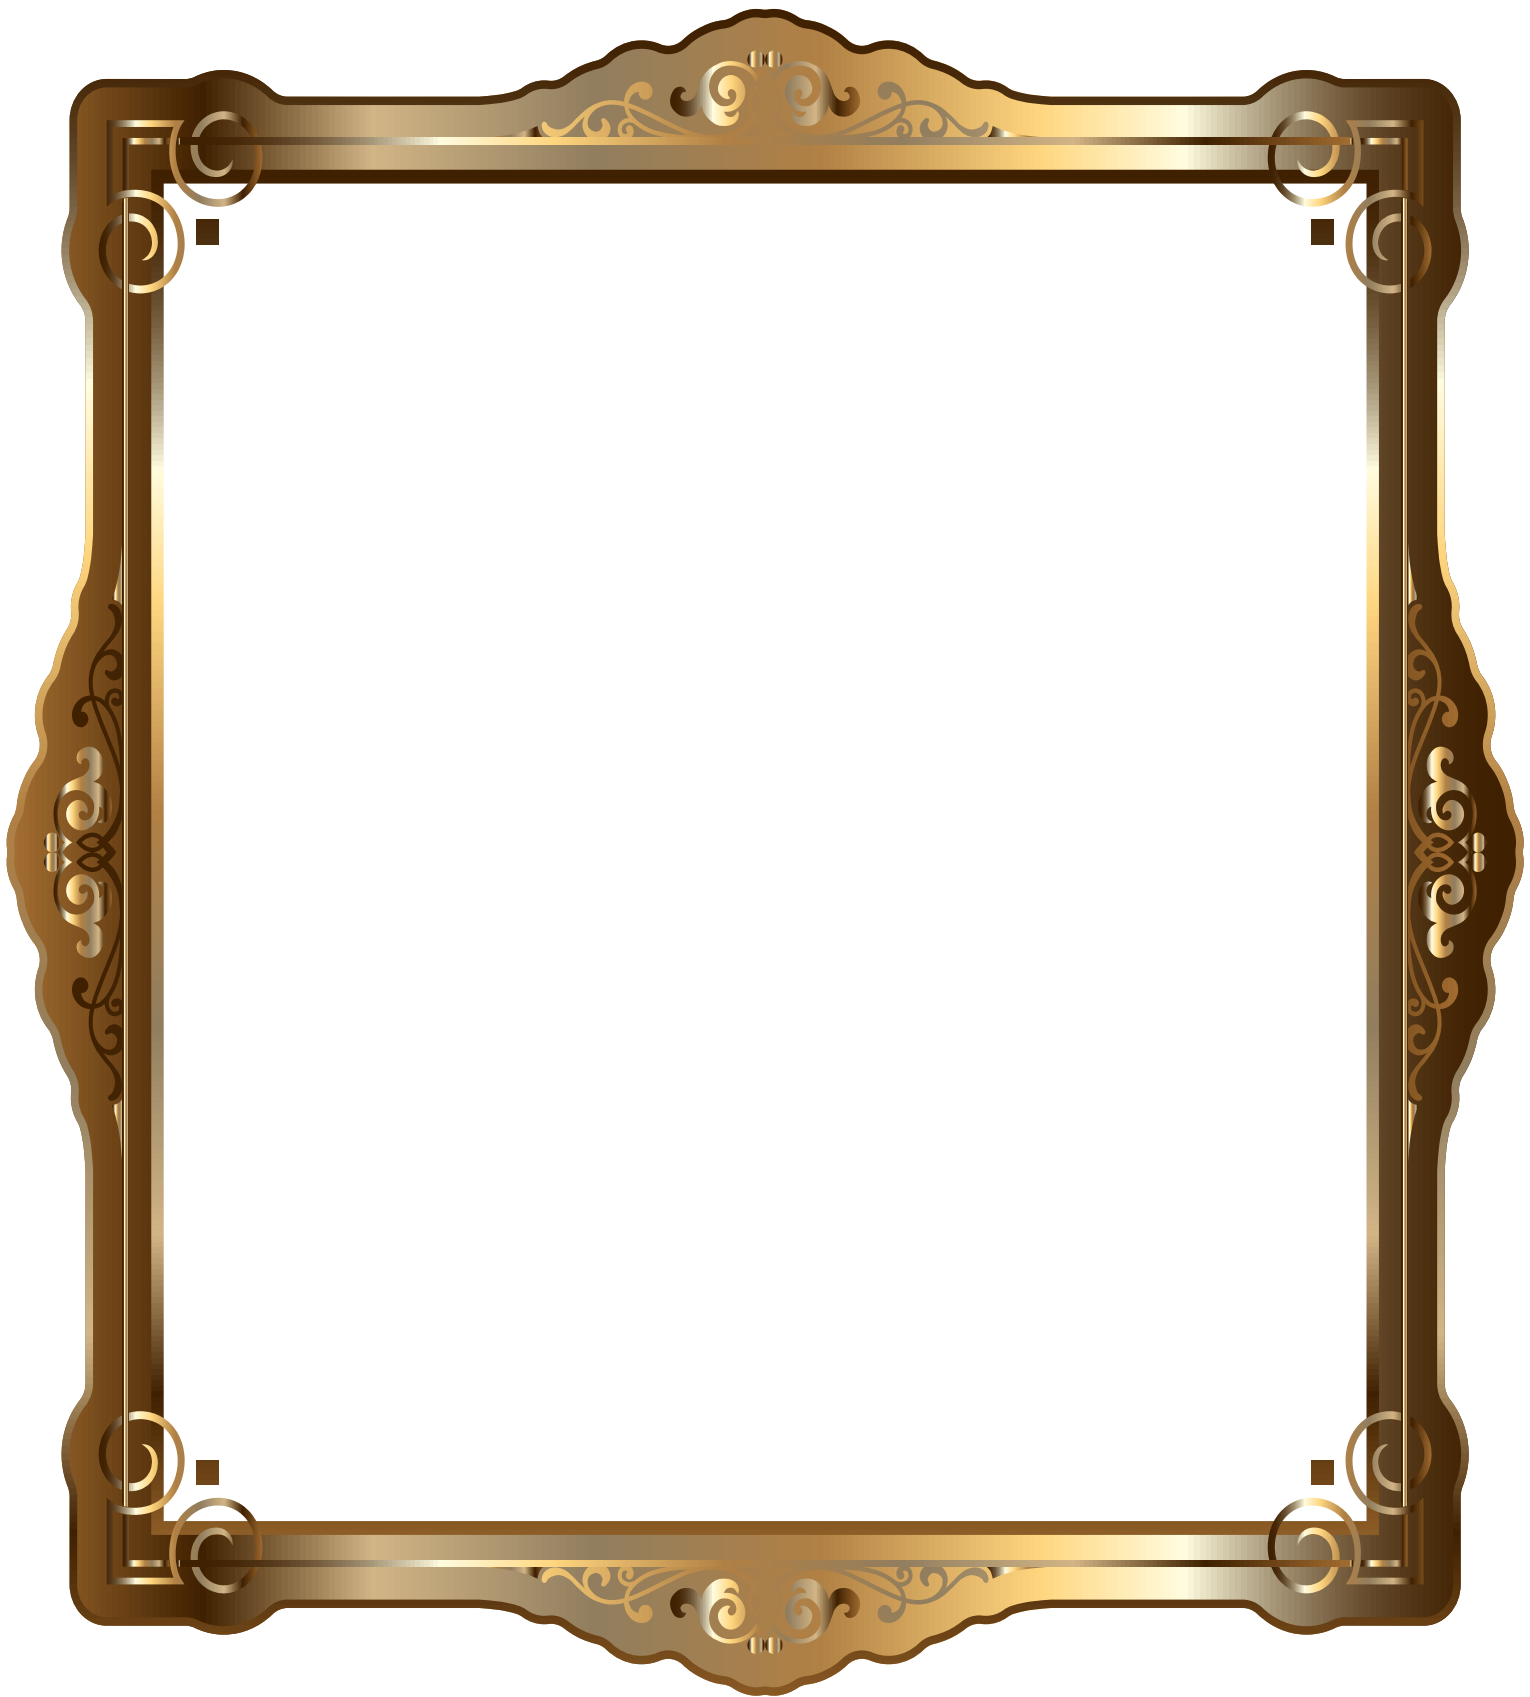

And for a lady you could give her lovely curly hair, red lips and rosy red cheeks.

Why not draw your Dickens character on the next page and send it to us?

We will create a special online gallery so that everyone can see your wonderful drawings!
